Lantern of Knowledge Boys' Secondary School is an independent Muslim school based in Leyton, London E10. We are a vibrant and focused school, dedicated to providing quality education to our pupils. Our commitment to the spiritual and moral well being of pupils features throughout the many areas of our school. We believe quality, individual-centred education, including memorisation of the Qur'an with correct tarbiyah (upbringing) equips our pupils to be exemplary citizens, committed to the true Islamic values of compassion, lifelong-learning, tolerance and making positive contributions to society at large.
